

The above subdivision entitled "Property of George Rollo" of which the following is a correct description: Those parcels of land, lying partly in the City of Williamsburg, Virginia, and partly in Jamestown District, James City County, Virginia, except the eastern two feet thereof, as conveyed to George Rollo by deed from H. N. Bucktrout and wife, dated May 5, 1928, and recorded in Williamsburg Deed Book No. 12, pages 481-2, bounded on the north by Boundary Street, on the east by two foot strip reserved by George Rollo which separates the subdivision from the Williams property on the south by the property of H. N. Bucktrout, and on the west by Texas Avenue, as appears in this plat, is with the free consent and in accordance with the desire of the undersigned owner and proprietor. George Rollo reserves said two foot strip in fee simple with no easement or right of way over same. Each lot owner in said subdivision shall have a private right of way over the street and alleys shown on said plat for ingress and egress, including the entrance from Boundary Street, except for the two foot strip reserved but no designation of the street and alleys is made for public use nor any rights accorded other property owners in said neighborhood bounding on the property conveyed to George Rollo by H. N. Bucktrout.

Witness the following signature and seal this 1st day of February, 1929.
