The subdivision shown on the attached plat entitled "Plat of Property Belonging to George Rollo, Williamsburg, Va." dated March 17, 1930, made and surveyed by C. M. Bozarth, of which the following is a correct description: Those two acres of land lying partly in the City of Williamsburg and partly in James-town District, James City County, Virginia, except the eastern two feet thereof, as conveyed to George Rollo by deed from L. L. Luckbrot and wife dated May 5, 1928, and recorded in Williamsburg Lead Book No. 12 pp. 431-2, bounded on the north by Boundary Street and the College of William & Mary and others, on the east by the two foot strip reserved by George Rollo which separates the subdivision from the Wilkins property; on the south by L. L. Luckbrot, and on the west by Texas Avenue, as appears in this plat, is with the free consent and in accordance with the desire of the undersigned owner and proprietor, George Rollo reserves said two foot strip in fee simple with no easement or right of way over same. Each lot owner in said subdivision shall have a private right of way over the street and alleys shown on said plat for ingress and egress, including the entrance from Boundary Street except for the two foot strip reserved; but no dedication of the street and alleys is made for public use nor any of its appurtenant other property owners in said neighborhood bounding on the property conveyed to George Rollo by L. L. Luckbrot.

WITNESS the following signature and seal this 27th day of January, 1936.
